Whitehall, November 2.

ON Thurſday Night laſt, between Seven and Eight o'Clock, died ſuddenly, at his Houſe in Upper Groſvenor Street, His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, to the great Grief of their Majeſties, and all the Royal Family.

Dublin Caſtle, October 24.

The Houſes of Lords and Commons having unanimouſly reſolved upon humble Addreſſes to His Majeſty, the ſame, together with Addreſſes from both Houſes to the Lord Lieutenant, were, this Day, preſented to his Excellency, and, with his Excellency's Anſwers, are as follow.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for the repeated Aſſurances we have received from the Throne of your Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions for the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom: The cordial Sincerity of which has been fully demonſtrated by many ſingular Proofs of your Royal Goodneſs.

Truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings of our happy Conſtitution, framed, in every Reſpect, for the Benefit of the People, we eſteem it our ineſtimable Duty to acknowledge, with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, that it is, in every Part, moſt religiouſly maintained, inforced and ſupported, by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels and the Clemency of your excellent Government.

With the moſt devoted Attachment to your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, we beg Leave to congratulate with your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, on the auſpicious Birth of another Prince, deſcended from your Majeſty, rejoicing in this Acceſſion of Strength to your moſt Illuſtrious Houſe, on the Stability of which the Happineſs of theſe your Majeſty's Kingdoms, and the Liberties of Europe (under God) depend.

At this Conjuncture we are particularly called upon moſt gratefully to acknowledge your Majeſty's tender Concern for us, in the Choice of his Excellency the Earl of Hertford to the Government of this Kingdom, from whoſe Knowledge of thoſe Connections by which the real Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland are inſeparably united, and his long experienced Attention to the particular Intereſts of this Kingdom, we have the moſt pleaſing Expectations of our full Enjoyment of thoſe Bleſſings moſt graciouſly intended for us by your Majeſty, which can only reſult from a wiſe and confidential Adminiſtration.

Be pleaſed, moſt gracious Sovereign, to accept of our faithful Aſſurances that we will chearfully concur with his Excellency the Earl of Hertford in every Meaſure which may moſt effectually contribute to the Increaſe of Manufactures and Commerce, to the promoting of Induſtry, Virtue and true Religion.

Theſe ſhall be the important Objects of our Deliberations, which we ſhall not fail to purſue with Attention and Diſpatch, with Harmony, Unanimity, and warmeſt Zeal for the public Good; the ſureſt Means of preſerving the Continuance of your Majeſty's Approbation, which we ſhall always eſteem our higheſt Reward.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, embrace, with the greateſt Eagerneſs, every Opportunity of renewing the warmeſt warmeſt Aſſurances, which Duty can dictate, or Gratitude inſpire, of our moſt inviolable Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

Attached as we are, by every Principle of Affection and Intereſt, what Pleaſure muſt we feel, and how ſincerely do we congratulate our moſt amiable Sovereign, on the auſpicious Birth of another Prince; which promiſes ſo great an Addition to his domeſtic Happineſs, and a further Stability to his moſt illuſtrious Houſe, and our invaluable Conſtitution.

We ſhould think ourſelves unworthy of that tender Care and Concern, ſo invariably ſhewn by your Majeſty, for the Welfare of this Kingdom, could we be inſenſible of this recent Inſtance of your paternal Goodneſs, in the Appointment of a chief Governor to preſide over us, whoſe diſtinguiſhed Abilities, animated by a peculiar and well-founded Affection for this Country, will not only enable him to diſcover, but engage him to employ the moſt effectual Means for promoting the true Intereſt and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

In this deſireable Work, your Majeſty may rely on the unanimous Concurrence and chearful Aſſiſtance of your faithful Commons; nor ſhall we fail to make an honourable Proviſion for the Support of your Majeſty's Government, convinced that our Supplies will be properly applied to the public Services, which we are pleaſed to find have hitherto been anſwered, without making Uſe of the confidential Credit, which your Majeſty, with your uſual Juſtice, conſidered only as a wiſe Precaution againſt Caſes of Neceſſity.

We ſhall continue to give our utmoſt Attention to the Increaſe and Improvement of the Linen Manufacture, which we conſider, in its ſeveral Branches, as a principal Object of our Commerce; and ſhall endeavour, by prudent Laws, to guard againſt private Frauds, ſo deſtructive of the Credit of this our Staple Commodity. And as we have always conſidered the Charter-Schools as Inſtitutions calculated to implant in the Minds of the lower Order of People, the Principles of true Religion and Induſtry, they ſhall undoubtedly receive the ſtrongeſt Proofs of our Protection and Encouragement.

Your Majeſty's favourable Acceptance and gracious Approbation of our paſt Conduct, will, if poſſible, ſtrengthen and improve our fixed and conſtant Reſolution of perſevering in thoſe Principles of Duty and Loyalty, which, as they have procured, will undoubtedly preſerve to us your Royal Favour and Protection.

E. Sterling, H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

Gentlemen,

I will take the firſt Opportunity of tranſmitting this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before his Majeſty.

To his Excellency Francis Seymour Earl of Hertford, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks for your Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

We eſteem ourſelves under the higheſt Obligations to your Excellency, for the ſingular Satisfaction you have expreſſed in this Opportunity of concurring with us in promoting His Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions for the Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Your Excellency's great Abilities, which have received the ſtrongeſt Approbation from the important Truſts repoſed in you by our wiſe Sovereign, and the long Experience we have had of your Knowledge in what relates to the real Intereſts of this Kingdom, with your powerful and ready Aſſiſtance in Support of them, give us an enlarged Proſpect of enjoying the utmoſt Benefit which can reſult from a well-informed benevolent Adminiſtration.

Theſe juſt Expectations call upon us again to expreſs, with the ſincereſt Duty and Gratitude, our ſtrong Senſe of His Majeſty's Wiſdom and peculiar Attention to the Happineſs of His moſt loyal and affectionate Subjects of Ireland, in having committed the Government of them to your Care.

We are moſt thankful to your Excellency for your joyful Information of the Increaſe of domeſtic Happineſs to our moſt amiable Sovereign, and the added Stability to His illuſtrious Houſe, by the Birth of another Prince deſcended from Him, with which the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms are neceſſarily connected.

Your Excellency's wiſe and ſeaſonable Advice to improve this Time of general Peace, by deliberating on the Means to render the natural Advantages of this Country moſt beneficial to the Inhabitants, and to increaſe National Wealth by the Employment of the People, cannot fail to animate our Endeavours for procuring thoſe deſirable Ends.

We think ourſelves moſt happy in His Majeſty's Approbation and Acceptance of our paſt Conduct, which has certainly been founded on our Zeal for His Service, and the Welfare of this Kingdom; in theſe Sentiments we ſhall perſevere; and with the firmeſt Reliance on your Excellency's kind Intentions towards us, we ſhall with Unanimity exert the utmoſt of our Power to ſupport the Honor of His Majeſty's Government, and the Eaſe of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, which we are confident will be formed on the Principles of public Utility to this Kingdom.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

My Lords,

I Am highly obliged to your Lordſhips for this very kind, and to me moſt acceptable Addreſs. My Deſire has ever been to be diſtinguiſhed by my Regards for this Country; and my Thanks to your Lordſhips for the Juſtice you have done to my Intentions, will be beſt expreſſed by the Exertion of my utmoſt Powers for the Welfare of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our moſt hearty Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne, and to teſtify the Satisfaction we feel in His Majeſty's moſt gracious and cordial Intentions to promote the Proſperity of this Kingdom, of which we have received a recent Proof, by the Appointment of a chief Governor ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed for his Abilities and Integrity, and for his affectionate Regard for our Welfare.

The juſt Sentiments your Excellency entertains of our Zeal and Attention for His Majeſty's Service, and of our Attention to the Welfare of our Country, give us the higheſt Satisfaction; and we reſt aſſured that this Seſſion of Parliament, and your Excellency's Adminiſtration, will be diſtinguiſhed by every poſſible Endeavour for the Attainment of ſuch deſirable Ends as are recommended to us; and we are fully convinced that ſuch Endeavours will be the moſt acceptable Service to His Majeſty, the moſt ſalutary Method of ſupporting His Government, and will beſt manifeſt our Gratitude for the paternal Care and Protection of the beſt of Kings.

The favourable Light in which His Majeſty has been pleaſed to view our paſt Conduct, will encourage us to perſevere in the ſame Principles, which have already recommended us to His Royal Approbation.

As we muſt ever conſider ourſelves moſt nearly intereſted in every Event which may contribute to the domeſtic Happineſs of our moſt gracious Sovereign, we receive with the higheſt Pleaſure the Information of the Increaſe of His Royal Family by the Birth of another Prince.

We ſhall chearfully concur in granting ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary to anſwer the Exigencies of the public Service, and ſupport His Majeſty's Government with Honor, fully perſuaded we ſhall again experience the beſt Œconomy, and proper Application of them.

We cannot be too warm in our Acknowledgements to your Excellency, for ſo wiſely pointing out the moſt beneficial Objects for increaſing the Wealth and promoting the Welfare of this Kingdom. The Support and Extenſion of the Linen Manufacture, in its ſeveral Branches, will beſt conduce to thoſe laudable Purpoſes; and we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Efforts to aſſiſt the Progreſs, and keep up the Credit of ſo valuable a Trade.

The Charter-Schools, which your Excellency ſo ſtrongly recommends to our Protection, will ever be a principal Object of our Care, fully ſenſible how neceſſary religious Principles, and a virtuous Education are to promote Induſtry in the People, and of the good Effects produced by thoſe uſeful Seminaries; and we muſt again repeat our ſincere Thanks to your Excellency for the kind Aſſurances you have given us, and the ardent Zeal you profeſs for the Peace, Safety and Proſperity of Ireland, which as the beſt Return we can make, we ſhall endeavour to repay, by doing every Thing in our Power to render your Excellency's Adminiſtration eaſy and honourable.
